Q. SADDLEBRED WALK AND TROT ALL AGES DIVISION

THE INTENT

To broaden the showing of American Saddlebred Horses to include riders and horses of all ages and capabilities. The class is open for any rider and age – excluding professional trainers.

Horses of all breeds may show in this Division at Regional and Club Shows and the class should be offered as an Open Class. At National Championship level, only Registered Saddlebreds may participate in this division. Ladies are allowed to show a stallion in this division. Children 10 years and under participating may not show stallions. AGM decision August 2022.

Riders have the option of presenting in Kentucky Attire or Show Hack Attire provided that their horses will be turned out in accordance with the Attire style selected.

These horses can enter the Country Pleasure, Show Hack and Western Riding divisions and stallions, mares and geldings may compete. Rules for clothing will be according to each division.

There is an exception to the 3 class Entry Limitation rule for Regional Shows as per Section C for horses showing in a combination of the Walk Trot All Ages, Country Pleasure Riding, Country Pleasure Driving, Western Riding, and Show Hack Divisions. Horses will be permitted to show in a combination of any 4 of these classes at a single show but may not compete in any other division in such a show.

The Walk Trot All Ages and Walk Trot Western Riding division classes will count as ½ a class each for purposes of the Section C General Showing Rules Entry Limitations.

Horse and Rider Combinations appearing in the Walk and Trot All Ages Division are prohibited from entering any class which requires a canter at the same show. The horse may however compete in a class requiring a canter at the same show with a different rider. Horse and Rider Combinations appearing in the Walk and Trot All Ages Division are prohibited from entering any other Walk and Trot Age Division Class, they are however permitted to enter the Walk and Trot Western Class.
