R. ALL BREEDS DIVISIONS

THE INTENT

To broaden Saddle Horse Shows to include riders of all ages and capabilities and horses of all breeds. These classes are open for any rider and age including professional trainers.

Horses of all breeds may show in this Division at Regional and Club Shows and the class should be offered as an Open Class. Ladies are allowed to show a stallion in this division. In Ladies only and Children classes, stallions will not be allowed.

Riders have the option of presenting in Kentucky Attire or English Attire provided that their horses will be turned out in accordance with the Attire style selected.

These horses can also enter the Country Pleasure, Show Hack and Western Riding divisions but must meet the requirements for turnout and presentation for these respective divisions in turn in the event of electing to do so. Stallions, mares and geldings may compete. Rules for clothing will be according to each division.

There is an exception to the 3 class Entry Limitation rule for Regional Shows as per Section C for horses showing in a combination of the Walk Trot All Ages, Three Gaited All Breeds Division, County Pleasure Riding, Country Pleasure Driving, Western Riding, and Show Hack Divisions. Horses will be permitted to show in a combination of any 4 of these classes at a single show but may not compete in any other division in such a show should they choose to avail themselves of this 4 class exception.

The Walk Trot All Ages and Walk Trot Western Riding division classes will count as ½ a class each for purposes of the Section C General Showing Rules Entry Limitations while the Three Gaited All Breeds Division will count for 1 full class.

Horse and Rider Combinations appearing in the Walk And Trot All Ages Division are prohibited from entering any class which requires a canter at the same show. The horse may however compete in a class requiring a canter at the same show with a different rider.
